

Irish Society for Rheumatology honours one of Irelands longest serving Rheumatologists

From left to right
Dr Sinead Harney, President of ISR, Dr Paul O'Connell and Prof Oliver FitzGerald

"King" Prof. Oliver FitzGerald, St Vincent's Hospital one of Ireland's longest serving Rheumatologists is crowned by his peers.

Prof Oliver FitzGerald was given a Life Time Achievement Award for his service to the field of Rheumatology and Research at the ISR Autumn Meeting which was held in the Killashee Hotel from 20th-21st September.

He was profiled by his long-time friend and colleague Dr Paul O'Connell, Beaumont Hospital and accompanied by his wife well known Consultant Dermatologist Dr Louise Barnes.

The two-day meeting at Killashee Hotel was attended by over 300 delegates and covered a wide range of topics with presenters from Ireland, UK, Belgium, UK, USA, Canada and Australia.

Details of full program and brochure available on www.isr.ie